IDIO Virtual Convening
October 19-22, 2020

Session Objectives

- Discuss what effective teams look like and how they function
- Gain practical ways from other family leaders on how to support systems development
- Share how you plan to share your voice in IDIO sessions

Breakout Introductions

- Introduce yourself and where you are from
- Identify 3 things that you all have in common
- Choose someone to share your commonalities

“The strength of the team is each individual member. The strength of each member is the team.”

—Phil Jackson

Stakeholder Engagement – Teaming - Convening

- Involve multiple stakeholders
- Share leadership
- Build consensus
- Work together
- Plan together
- Make decisions

Who are the stakeholders?

---

Why multiple stakeholders?

- Various perspectives are key
  - Should not be responsibility of one person or be reflective of one person's opinion
  - build broader solutions and have a wider breadth of networks, skills, and strengths to leverage
- Perspectives needed:
  - Individual familiar with Part C and/or 619
  - Family members
  - Individuals familiar with data collection
  - Those familiar with data use
  - Individuals who understand the data and its limitations

Different Levels of Teaming

- Child Level Team
- System Level Team
  - Local and State Level Systems

Teams are effective when...

- there is a clear vision;
- members understand their role and team expectations;
- a clear plan is developed;
- processes and procedures are followed;
- they stay solution-focused and action-oriented;
- goals are revisited;
- the plan is monitored and adjusted as needed.

What is your Why?

- Identifying your Why (Your purpose, cause or belief)
- Share in the Chat your “Why”

Discussion

- What systems-level teams are you involved?
- What makes them effective?

Breakout Rooms – Teaming

- Describe your role in working with the state level team
- How are you sharing your voice and the voice of other families in your state?
- What's working well? Challenges?

Sharing Your Voice at IDIO

Group Discussion

- What interests you?
- What sessions are you attending?
